COMING SOON!

Call for Nominations

During the 67th IAATI International Vehicle Crime Conference in Glasgow, Scotland, the Nominating Committee will be conducting interviews with all the members in attendance that are interested in serving on the 2019/2020 International Board.

Even if you are not attending the conference a Nomination/Resume will be required to be considered for a position on the 2019/2020 IAATI Board.

The Nominating Committee will review all Nominations/Resumes submitted and follow up as needed for those members who are unable to attend the conference.

If you are interested in serving on the IAATI Board, please submit a short resume with the following information:

- Position you would like to be considered for
- Membership Number and the number of years that you have been an IAATI member
- Number of IAATI seminar/conferences you have attended
- Your work history and current employment
- Other positions held within IAATI Chapters/Branches and local auto theft associations
- Ideas and experiences that you have that may benefit IAATI

Presently sitting officers who may advance to the next higher position shall also provide the nominating committee the following:

- Briefly describe your accomplishments while in present office
- How you fulfilled the Constitution and By-law requirements of your particular office for the past year
- What you presently see for IAATI in the future and how you might assist

Please send an email with your Nomination/Resume to IAATI Past President J.D. Hough at jdough@iaati.org

The deadline for all submissions is September 1, 2019.

E-NEWSLETTER UPDATES

In order to provide relevant and fresh news related to vehicle theft and related crimes, the focus will be to provide more issues, more often, with the latest stories that you need to see, all at your fingertips. IAATI training seminar information, Branch/Chapter News and updates, and committee reports are all posted on the website. Auto Theft Today will have a section included with links to all of these areas on the website that you can easily access for the latest information. Below is a chart of the menus on the website to provide an overview of the wealth of information available once you log in. Please take a few minutes to visit www.iaati.org and check it out!

Networking, sharing information and keeping up to date with the latest trends, contacts and news in the world of vehicle theft are instrumental in the always demanding world that we as investigators live in, so the majority of each issue will contain summaries of the latest incidents, arrests, and related information with links to the full story. The links can also be copied and pasted into an email to share with others.

There will also be a section that links to the "Submit a News Story" function on the website. Collectively, we can all reap greater benefits from every-one sharing just one story, one contact or one idea. Please submit yours either through the website or in an email to enews@iaati.org.

Scottish Highland Dress – Hire Package

Tartan is historically part of the national dress for Scotland – it was a roughly woven fabric using natural plant dyes from areas occupied in the Highlands. Each Clan or family name had their own tartan or affiliated tartan, with variations of Ancient, Hunting, Modern, Dress and Weathered colourways.

However, now many people, although not associated with a clan or family, like a particular colourway and honour the Scottish heritage by wearing the outfit with a sense of pride.

We have brought together a selection of tartans to choose from with a self-measurement form to complete should you wish to dress in Scottish national attire.

Tartans available –

Black Watch – Modern Douglas – Modern Robertson – Flower of Scotland – Royal Stewart – Dress Gordon – Hunting Stewart – Spirit of Bannockburn

These can be viewed on my Facebook page – Richard Mackay Tailoring.

The complete package includes –

- Kilt
- Jacket
- Waistcoat
- Sporrان
- Belt
- 2 x Shirts and a Bow Tie
- Flashes and Skean Dhu
- Socks and Shoes

The total cost of the package for the duration of the event is £165.00.

Self-Measurement Form

In all instances, hold tape firm and level, but not tight.

- a. Full height, from the top of your head to the floor.
- b. Neck Circumference: Wrap tape around to the base of your front neck and allow room for wearing comfort; OR measure the collar length of a favourite shirt.
- c. *Sleeve Length: From the centre back (CB) of your neck with your arm slightly bent, follow the tape around to your wrist bone.
- d. Chest: Wrap a tape measure evenly around the fullest part under your arms.
- e. Waist: Wrap a tape around your natural waistline, - around your tummy button.
- f. Seat/Hip: Standing with your feet together, measure around the fullest part of your hip (approx. 7-8" below the waist). Don't forget to keep the tape level.
- g. Inseam: Best taken from an existing pair of trousers you like. Measure along the garment inseam from the crotch seam to the hem.
- h. Glove Hand: Measure all the way around the flat part of your hand, excluding the thumb, and around the widest part at the knuckles. Refer to sizing on product page to convert this measurement in inches to your corresponding glove size.
- i. Shoe size

Where in the World? By Paul Thomas

Did you know that IAATI has members in Trinidad and Tobago? Well we do, we have two members based there - Martin and Robert.

Have you ever needed a contact in Belarus, Kenya or Malaysia? Yes, we also have members there as well.

In fact we have over 3,100 members in 66 countries throughout the world.

While IAATI is currently working to expand our membership base throughout Asia, you can see from the following map that we have members in most parts of the world. These are people you can turn to for assistance with your investigations.

To find details of an IAATI member in another country simply:

Go to our website www.iaati.org

1. Click the Account button in the header of the home page and log in.
2. Once you have logged in, click the Search button in the header.
3. An orange coloured panel will open where you can either search the entire site or search for members.
4. To search for members click the blue Member Search button.
The best way to search is to then click the '+ Further options' link. This will enable you to filter your search by a large number of data items including 'Home country'.

Alternatively, you can access this search feature from the Membership page of the website. Simply select 'Search members' from the submenu on the right side of the Membership page. Remember, as this tool is only available to financial members, you can only search for members once you have logged into your account.

As a quick guide to where we have members you can also visit the new interactive membership map on our website.

Board Members and Committee Members wanted!

Each year during the annual IAATI conference, members elect a new board of directors. New committee members are selected as well. Now is the time to do your part and submit your intent to serve on the IAATI board or one of the committees. It is as simple as sending an email to the chair of the Nominating Committee, Past President JD Hough at jdhough@iaati.org.

When submitting your email, please including the following information:

- Your name and number of years you have been an IAATI member along with membership number;
- Your profession and current employer;
- Your reasons for wanting to get more involved;
- The number of IAATI seminars you have attended over the past years;
- What ideas you have that might benefit IAATI;
- Your experience/work within your local IAATI chapter/branch.

IACP's Vehicle Crimes Committee has been busy for the last few years!

The committee continually works on multiple issues regarding vehicle related crimes. Currently work groups are focusing on rental vehicle thefts, emerging technology issues and creating a vehicle crimes toolkit for smaller agencies.

Awards & Recognition

If you know of any IAATI Member that has received any recognition please let us know so we can share the news. Email enews@iaati.org.

Awards Nominations

With a busy work life we rarely take time out to sit back and review our work or that of others. We rush to finish one job and then move straight on to the next. However it is important that we all occasionally take a moment and assess ours and our colleagues work, and then acknowledge those examples of outstanding achievement.

While all Chapters and Branches have their own local awards the International Board also manages a total of eight awards including:

- Raymond H. Dreher Memorial Award
- The IAATI Award of Merit
- IAATI President's Award
- IAATI Directors Award
- The IAATI Insurance Investigator of the Year Award
- IAATI Heavy Equipment Award
- IAATI Component Parts Markings Award
- NICB Award of Excellence

Nominations for all Awards close on 1st May each year, but you don't need to wait until then. Why not use some free time over the Christmas holidays to nominate someone and send it in.

Details on the criteria for each award and how to nominate can be found on the Awards Page of the website at <https://www.iaati.org/awards>

You Chapters also have awards available. Please reach out or look at their websites and see what is available and the due dates as they will all be different. It is important to recognize all the dedicated hard workers out there. Please take the few minutes and nominate these important people.

Success Story

Cooperation between Shelter Insurance's Special Investigations Unit and The Robison Group Investigative Solutions leads to a success story.

A claim was filed with Shelter Insurance for the theft of a Toyota Corolla in Arkansas in July 2017. The claim was assigned to The Robison Group Investigative Solutions for field investigation related to the theft. The Claims Department learned the vehicle had recently been titled and registered in California. With this new title Shelter was unable to obtain a salvage title.

The local California police auto-theft task force was unsuccessful confirming the vehicle's presence at the registration address during drive-by spot checks of the residence.

A license plate reader search revealed several matches at various locations, and most recently, a Home Depot parking lot and a housing complex. A May 2018 match showed the vehicle parked on the street in what appeared to be a new or expanding housing development with ongoing construction. It was not clear if the vehicle was parked at a residence or in the construction area.

The investigator reviewed Google Maps satellite and street view for the location. In doing so, a late model, dark colored Toyota sedan was seen parked in a driveway directly across from where the match was recorded. The street view of the license plate was blurred, but the date of the street view photograph was labeled May; the same month the license plate reader recorded the vehicle at that address.

More database research found records that showed the residence was recently purchased by a family whose prior addresses also corresponded with the earlier license plate reader matches found in other areas. Later, a license plate registration inquiry confirmed the homeowner and vehicle owner were the same.

Our field investigator went to this address in California and observed the vehicle. Local law enforcement was contacted, but they disclosed the vehicle was not currently listed as stolen via NCIC. We contacted law enforcement in Arkansas who immediately re-entered the vehicle into NCIC as active and stolen. Before the police in California arrived, the vehicle departed the residence and our investigator followed. Our investigator communicated with police in real time updating the vehicle's movements and location. The police eventually stopped the vehicle and impounded it.

Our investigator was able to determine the vehicle was sold at a lien sale in Arkansas and then resold via the website OfferUp to the current registrant.

Shelter Insurance appealed to the State of California DMV requesting they withdraw the incorrectly issued title and registration thus rendering it null and void. Once this administrative part of the process is complete, the vehicle will be sold via an auto auction with the proceeds being properly directed to Shelter Insurance and the claim will be closed.

This is an example of cooperation and investigative partnership between an insurance company's claims department, Special Investigations Unit and an investigation firm working together for a successful outcome.

Casey Cordy, FCLA has been investigating insurance fraud for 10 years. She can be reached at ccordy@therobisongroup.com or www.therobisongroup.com.

Training Opportunities

2019 Auto Theft Training Seminars Submitted by Past Pres. Denny Roske

Training is one of the most important areas that we as auto theft investigators need to continually seek out. With the trends in auto theft changing on a daily basis, we need to stay on top of these new developments that can assist us with prevention, identification, investigation, and prosecution. If you know of any other auto theft courses that are being offered, please contact me at: iaatidenny@aol.com IAATI will also post course announcements on our web site & the IAATI e-news during the year. Always check the IAATI web site for training information at: iaati.org The following auto theft training courses are being offered at this time:

Enter to Win: A Free registration to the 2020 Australasian Branch Training Seminar

We would like to encourage our fellow IAATI members to join us at our 2020 Training Seminar. So to help entice you down under, the Australasian Branch of IAATI is offering one member from each of IAATI's Branches and Chapters a free registration to our 2020 Annual Training Seminar in Melbourne, 20-22 April, 2020 (Note: the date is yet to be confirmed).

Why? To encourage greater interaction and exchange of IAATI members from around the world. We know Australia and New Zealand are a long way from the rest of the world, but we would love to have you visit us and develop networks and contacts with your fellow IAATI members 'down under'.

What's the catch? While we are offering free seminar registrations, you will be required to cover all your other costs including travel and accommodation. Sorry, but it will be worth it! Why not consider bringing the family and having a holiday in Australia. You can visit our great beaches, our modern cities, the natural beauty of the Australian outback or take in some of our unique flora and fauna.

When & Where: The Seminar is being held in Melbourne, in the State of Victoria. Most international airlines fly directly into Melbourne so there is no internal flights required. The Seminar venue is currently being finalised.

How to apply: Please send a short email stating your name, IAATI membership number, and contact details to the Australasian Branch President, Mr. Mark Pollard, via: mpollard@iaati.org
Nominations close 11th October, 2019 and winners will be advised by the 30 October 2019.

The Fine Print:

1. The Australasian Branch is offering up to nine (9) free seminar registrations to current IAATI members from outside the Australasian Branch to attend their 2020 Annual Training Seminar in Melbourne. One free registration will be offered to a member from each of the following IAATI Branches - Asian, European, Latin American, Southern African, United Kingdom, and each of the North American IAATI Chapters - NERC, NCRC, SCRC, SERC, and the WRC.
2. If multiple nominations are received from a branch or chapter then the Australasian Branch will consult with your local branch or chapter president to determine who will receive the offer.
3. The offer only covers the cost of the seminar registration fee, i.e. training classes, delegate's pack, lunches during the seminar, the Networking reception and seminar dinner. Recipients of the offer are required to cover all other costs including, but not limited to, transportation costs, accommodation, visas (if required), other meals not included in the seminar, travel insurance, tickets for partners to the seminar dinner and reception, etc.
4. This offer only applies to current financial IAATI members who have applied and have received confirmation from the Australasian Branch that they have been selected to receive a free registration.
5. Please only apply if you are reasonably certain you will be able to attend and take up the offer if selected.

SAVE THE DATE: 2019 Cargo Theft and Transportation Summit

Join us for the 5th annual Cargo Theft and Transportation Summit hosted by Travelers Insurance and CargoNet. The Cargo Theft and Transportation Summit provides important opportunities for law enforcement, insurance, and private industry personnel to gain insight into local and national cargo theft and transportation issues.

The Summit offers training and networking opportunities to provide a collaborative effort to detect and deter theft and identify trends in the transportation industry.

Registration: We will be sending out the invitation for this complementary no charge training opportunity in June. The invitation will include the detailed schedule and links to register for the event and book a hotel room.

Resolutions

International Association of Auto Theft Investigators
Auto Theft Prevention Authorities Committee

Resolution for Watch Your Car Program

- Whereas: The ATPA Committee recognizes the Watch Your Car Program was adopted under the United States Federal Motor Vehicle Theft Prevention Act of 1994, and subsequently published in the Federal Register on August 6, 1996.¹
- Whereas: The Watch Your Car Program is a national voluntary effort that encourages owners of motor vehicles to display a light reflective decal or sticker on the rear window of their vehicle to alert police that their vehicle is not normally driven between the hours of 1 a.m. and 5 a.m.
- Whereas: Since adoption under the United States Code, versions of the national program have been adopted by some states, local jurisdictions and auto theft prevention programs.²
- Whereas: The ATPA Committee received a report from the Intelligence Analysts Workgroup which provided background, rationale, case study, challenges, and recommendations.
- Therefore: Based on consultation with representatives from the ATPA Committee, the Watch Your Car Program would be recommended for IAATI to support an existing or new programmatic implementation under the following conditions:
1. The programmatic owner would perform a jurisdictional legal analysis which demonstrates applicability for implementing or continuing the Watch Your Car program, including consideration on elements of the program not creating intrusive police activity which would infringe on personal rights of citizens,
 2. The programmatic owner has on-going impact analysis of the Watch Your Car Program which identifies and manages the number of registrants enrolled in the program, awareness, and training to law enforcement, and ability to dis-enroll registrants that either no longer poses the previously enrolled vehicle or desire to no longer participate,
 3. The programmatic owner performs an annual administrative analysis on the performance and effectiveness of Watch Your Car Program, which may include the number of active registrants, number of dis-enrolled registrants, number of vehicles which were identified as being stolen at the time of the police stop, etc.
- Adopted: This resolution is adopted by the IAATI ATPA Committee on the 9th day of May 2019.

¹ Federal Register, Volume 61, No. 152, Pages 40725-40727, 42 U.S.C. 14171 Part 29 Motor Vehicle Theft Prevention Act Regulations

² Examples of Watch Your Car Programs include: Combat Auto Theft or C.A.T. program began as an experiment in New York in the mid-1980's and was brought to additional cities in California in 1992 (Connelly, June 30, 1992); California and Minnesota call it the Help Eliminate Auto Theft or H.E.A.T. program (Riverside, California Police Department, May 8, 2017; Duluth, Minnesota Police Department, 2018); Illinois has the Beat Auto Theft or B.A.T. program (United States Department of Justice, February 1998).

NMVTIS

What is NMVTIS you ask?

According to the website, The National Motor Vehicle Title Information System (NMVTIS) is, among other things, a tool that assists local, state, and federal law enforcement in investigating, deterring, and preventing vehicle-related crimes.

Please visit the website to learn more about NMVTIS and its Benefits to Law Enforcement.
