

National Motor Vehicle
Theft Reduction Council

AUSTRALIAN VEHICLE CRIME CONFERENCE

Towards a Secure System

Melbourne 4–6 April 2017

RACV

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY RACV THEMES & PROVISIONAL PRESENTATION SYNOPSES (PRESENTATION TITLES ARE WORKING TITLES ONLY)

Provisional Program – Day 1

0800—0900	Registration opens
09.00—09.15	The Hon. Lisa Neville, Victorian Minister for Police, Conference Opening opens conference
09.15—09.30	Ray Carroll, Executive Director, NMVTRC, Conference Themes and Black Box Thinking (Learning from Failure and the Value of Marginal Gains)
Session 1: Diverting Young Offenders
09.30—10.00	Speaker 1 – Assistant Commissioner Robert (Bob) Hill, Victoria Police, Responding to Nightly Youth Violence and Recklessness in the Streets
10.00—10.30	Speaker 2 – Detective Chief Inspector Paul Betts, Midlands Police, Multi-agency Approach to young offenders
10.30—11.00	Morning tea
11.00—11.30	Speaker 3 – Dr Monica Theilking, Swinburne University, Insights into Contemporary Young Offender Behaviour in Victoria
11.30—12.00	Speaker 4 – Assistant Commissioner Stephen Leane, Victoria Police, Managing Young Offenders through inter agency cooperation
12.00—12.30	Speaker 5 – Ben Neil, Manager for Social Enterprise, Mission Australia, Synergy Repairs: Restoring Young Lives and Cars
12.30—13.30	Lunch
Session 2: Disrupting the Vehicle Laundering and Separated Parts Markets
13.30—14.00	Speaker 6 – Detective Superintendent Murray Chapman, NSW Police, Reforming the Scrap Metal Trade in New South Wales
14.00—14.30	Speaker 7 – Geoff Gwilym, Executive Director, VACC, An Industry Model for the Management of End-of-life vehicles
14.30—15.00	Speaker 8 – Amanda Bird, Senior Tax Specialist - Complex Investigations, Australian Tax Office, Following the Money
15.00—15.30	Afternoon tea
Session 3: Wrap Up Day 1

15.30—16.00	Panel Discussion- Q&A
16.30	Day 1- Close
17.00-19.00	Networking Reception

Provisional Program – Day 2

	Session 4: Building Stakeholder and Community Capacity and Promoting Innovation Part I
09.00—09.30	Speaker 9 – Ray Carroll, Executive Director, NMVTRC, Burglaries to Access keys (the New Permanent state) and how Motorists Perceive Vehicle Crime
09.30—10.00	Speaker 10 – Brian Negus, General Manager, RACV, Broader Advocacy
10.00—10.30	Speaker 11 – Sam Hunter, CEO, Crimestoppers Victoria, Optimising the Reach and Effectiveness of Collaborative Communications
10.30—11.00	Morning Tea
11.00—11.30	Speaker 12 – Lisa Rudd, Community Development Officer, Glenorchy City Council, Tackling Vehicle Crime in Local Communities
11.30—12.00	Speaker 13 – Robert McDonald, Secretary General, RCAR, Theft by Wire: Facts V Fiction
12.00—12.30	Speaker 14 – VicRoads, The Secret Life of Number Plates,
12.30—13.30	Lunch
13.30—14.00	Speaker 15 – Detective Chief Inspector Oliver Little, City of London Police (IAATI Speaker), Genuine Theft or Collision vs Fraud
14.00—14.30	Speaker 16 – Keir Bielecke, Policy Advisor- Risk, Insurance Council of Australia, Insurance Industry response to Motor fraud
	Session 5: Building Stakeholder and Community Capacity and Promoting Innovation Part II
14.30—15.00	Speaker 17 – Rob Bartlett, Executive Manager, Suncorp, The Lawyer, the Smash Repairer and Car Napping Rort
15.00—16.00	Panel discussion and Q & A
16.00	Day 2- Close, Conference Wrap
	Optional
16.15—17.00	IAATI 2017 Annual General Meeting
18.30—22.30	IAATI 2107 Awards Dinner (Dinner tickets available for purchase)

Provisional Program – Day 3

	IAATI Training Day Commences
09.00—09.20	Speaker 1 – Hans Kooijman, IAATI International President/Manger Claims Investigations, Allianz Netherlands, IAATI – An International network for Vehicle Crime Investigators
09.20—09.55	Speaker 2 – Detective Senior Constable Luke Simpson, Motor Unit- property Crime Squad, State Crime Command, NSW Police, Strike Force Jardine-a case study
09.55—10.30	Speaker 3 – Robert Ishak, Co-founder and Chairman, William Robert Lawyers, The Power of Negotiation- how to use Neuro Linguistic Programming to relate to your clients and understand their perspective
10.30—10.50	Morning Tea
10.50—11.30	Speaker 4 – Keir Bielecke, Policy Advisor- Risk, Insurance Council of Australia, Emerging trends in motor vehicle insurance fraud
11.30—12.15	Speaker 5 – Detective Chief Inspector Oliver Little, Insurance Fraud enforcement Department, City of London Police, Establishing the IFED- the hurdles faced and lessons learnt
12.15—12.45	Speaker 6 – Dr Kate Grimwood, Forensic Sales Manager, XTEK, Non-destructive examinations of vehicle identifiers
12.45—13.40	Lunch
13.40—14.20	Speaker 7 – Nigel Carson and Tim Myers, Partner and Director, KordaMentha Forensic, Digital evidence in vehicle crime cases
14.20—15.00	Speaker 8 – Stephen Tully, MVA Investigations, Forensic Mechanical Investigations
15.00	Day 3- Close